Terms & Conditions:

Methods of Payment: We accept VISA, Mastercard, and PayPal on the website. If you would like to pay with an alternative method, please contact us at (805) 644-6290. We can accept check, wire transfer, cash, or Discover.

Back Orders: If an item is subject to a manufacturer's delay, a Customer Service Representative will notify you. If you would like to continue with your order to ship when available, we will charge you for the order and ship as soon as your unit arrives. Internet credit card authorizations cannot be held in a pending state for more than 7 days, so for back orders and special orders, we must either capture or cancel, or collect funds through a more traditional transaction.

Special Orders: Our representatives will be happy to assist you with all your special orders. Please supply us with all manufacturer information pertaining to the product you wish to order (i.e., model number, name, and color). Inflatable Boat Specialists is not responsible for incorrect manufacturer information. With few exceptions, Special Orders may not be cancelled or returned. Items shipped directly from the supplier/manufacturer are billed at the time of order and may incur an additional service fee imposed by the supplier.

Returns, Refunds, & Exchanges: Please make sure to include the original packaging, manuals, and all other products pieces with your return. We reserve the right to refuse returns or assess additional fees at our discretion if the merchandise is not in the original packaging and ready-to-be-sold condition. Electronics, inflatable boats, trailers, and outboard engines cannot be returned. For all other products, returns for refunds must be made within 10 days, minus shipping and handling fees. Returns for store credit or exchange must be made within 30 days. Special orders are ineligible for returns. We only replace items if they are defective or damaged, and notified within 10 days. A refund will be processed once product is received from customer. Customers must notify return within 10 days and provide a tracking number to be eligible for a refund. Showroom models, demos, clearance, and scratch and dent products may have some cosmetic imperfections or scratches, are discounted due to this, and this is not considered a reason for return or exchange. Please send all returns and exchanges to: Inflatable Boat Specialists 2900 Golf Course Dr Ventura, CA 93003.
